The process of etching on brass for signs. —Paint the sign with asphalt varnish, leaving the parts to be etched unpainted, raise a border around the outside, made of soft beeswax or asphalt, to hold the acid. Use nitric acid diluted with five times the quantity of water. Pour the dilute acid on to the sign about one-quarter inch deep. When the letters are cut deep enough, which must be found by trial, the acid may be poured off and the plate cleaned by heating and wiping, and finally with turpentine.

To clean glass that has been run onto with colors while doing the frames.—First take a sharp-edged putty-knife, but one which has no nicks or ridges on the edge; cut the paint off as low as you can without scratching the glass; after you have done so, take a little turps and oil with some fine pumice-stone; have it about as fine as rotten stone; rub the places just hard enough to lift the balance of the color, then clean off with rag and soap, wash and polish with a cotton rag or newspaper.

It is a fact not well known that native sulphate of baryta is an active poison to rats, mice and dogs. It is not easy to explain its action, considering its extreme insolubility; but, mixed with lard, it is readily eaten by them. This being the case, the question suggests itself, whether it might not replace the more dangerous poisons now so much used for this purpose, and do away with the risk attending them.

A Shriveled Up Creature!

Dry as a bunch of herbs, face like parchment, hair in thin wisps, hands skinny and bony, a long, thin lipped mouth, eyes small and red, the whole constituting an amalgamation of the cat and the ferret. This uninviting specimen of femininity was brought to this deplorable condition through using poisonous beautifying (?) lotions and deadly cosmetics, in the vain endeavor to acquire what nature had denied her—a clear skin and a healthy complexion. Had this unfortunate woman invested but one-twentieth part of her outlay in Dr. CAMPBELL'S "LIFE RE-NEWING" ARSENIC COMPLEXION WAFERS, the probabilities are that her portrait to-day would be as ATTRACTIVE as it now is HIDEOUS and REVOLTING. And yet she is but 40 years of age. Take WARNING ye who are following in the same ruinous and beauty destroying path.

Twenty-one "Gorton" Boilers for Fort Sheridan, Ill.—Messrs. Gorton and Lidgerwood Company, New York, have just received an order from the government authorities at Fort Sheridan, Ill., for twenty-one of their celebrated "Gorton" Steam Heating Boilers. This boiler is well adapted for military use. It is sectional and easily transported, requires no brickwork in setting, is economical in the use of fuel and requires but very little attention. Besides this it can be used for manufacturing as well as heating purposes.

Instead of increasing the weight of any thin window shade material by lining it, Prudhom applies a sizing, composed of linseed oil and powdered kaolin, which makes a thin mortar. This can be laid on with a brush or paper sizing machine. When thoroughly dry the plain side can be printed upon in the way oil-cloths are manufactured, without injury to the face. A coat of mineral oil, to finish with, gives the material a dead, leathery aspect.

"You might as well sell this stuff by the cord," said a buyer to a publisher of cheap juvenile literature.

"Why so?" said the astonished publisher.
"Because the paper is all wood." Tableau!

A syndicate of capitalists from Boston, Mass., are about to engage in the manufacture of book cloth on Staten Island under a new process, the invention of Mr. Edward Steers, of West Brighton. Two buildings will be erected, one 150 feet by 50 feet, and one 30 feet by 50 feet, which will be ready by early spring. The cloth to be made by the new company will, it is said, stand washing, and is not affected by heat or cold.

Cork cutting is one of the industries in which machinery is not yet able to produce the finest kind of work. Machines have been constructed which turn out about 2,000 corks an-hour, but they are useless for the cutting of the finer varieties. A skillful cork cutter can produce from 1,500 to 2,000 corks a day, his only tools being two sharp knives with broad blades.

THE COSMOPOLITAN is literally what the New York Times calls it, "At its price, the brightest, most varied and best edited of the magazines."

"LEAPING INTO PUBLIC FAVOR."

THE COSMOPOLITAN has been received with evidence of public favor such as have never been accorded to but one other magazine.

"It has more articles in each number that are readable, and fewer uninteresting pages, than any of its contemporaries."—Boston Journal.

THE COSMOPOLITAN furnishes for the first time in magazine literature,

A Splendidly Illustrated Periodical at a Price hitherto deemed impossible.

TRY IT FOR A YEAR.

It will be a liberal educator to every member of the household. It will make the nights pass pleasantly. It will give you more for the money than you can obtain in any other form.

Do you want a first-class magazine, giving annually 1536 pages by the ablest writers, with more than 1500 illustrations, by the cleverest artists—as readable a magazine as money can make—a magazine that makes a specialty of live subjects?

"The marvel is how the publishers can give so much for the money."—Philadelphia Evening Call.

AN ADORABLE ARMFUL!

Her complexion was creamy, she had large, beautiful eyes, shining with soft brilliancy under arched brows, lips red as pomegranate blossoms, between which shone teeth of pearly whiteness, her hands and feet were of aristocratic delicacy, while the exquisite perfection of her figure, the divine roundness of her neck and the beautiful lines of her arms and shoulders were of extraordinary fineness and purity. But best of all she was the possessor of so intelligent and animated an expression that every man experienced an irresistible longing to hear her speak and a ready willingness to perform the Japanese "hara-kari" for a smile. This lovely and adorable being acquired these physical perfections through using Dr. CAMPBELL'S "LIFE RENEWING" ARSENIC COMPLEXION WAFERS.
